Hey brother taking control
I got a better view of you.
Hey sister abuse of them all
I got a better day for you.

Hey sinners reach down your souls
I got a better day for you.
Believers preaching the law
what you pretend to be.
Better of all.

Asylums with doors open wide.
While someone's got to pay to see the inside.
I am now what I thought I would be.
Just a man with a broken wing and one chance to win.

I'm leaving, I listen there is a chance for me to go.
I'm leaving, I'm seeking there's the day for me to go.

Falling down
My head around
On those days I'll rest my case
Falling down my head around
On those days I'll rest my case

I'm falling down
I'm falling around
