"To Love You"

Where has nature gone?
Is loving you wrong?

To love, and to be loved
That's what my life should be about
I reach your lips, we share a kiss
And I fall.

To love and to be loved by you
To love you is all I can do
And for always
To love and to be loved by you
To love you is all I can do

To love and be loved
That's what life's all about
Keeps the stars coming
What makes a sad heart sing
I'm falling....

To love and be loved
That's what living is for
My goal is greater than this
To reach your lips to share your kiss

To love and to be loved by you

To love you is all I can do
And for always
To love and to be loved by you
To love you is all I can do

To stay in your arms
Is the dream I pursue
To be sheltered from the storm
To be cozy and ever so warm
Simply to love you

To love and to be loved by you
To love you is all I can do
And for always
To love and to be loved by you

To love you is all I can do

And for always to love

And be loved by you.
