Music: Sundberg, Bergman, Emanuelsson

Lyrics: Karlsson, Bergman

Deluded into despair
this emptiness more than I can bear All I own is pain and sorrow
all I know is guilt Anxiety, disgust of tomorrow
I'm drowning in my filth...

I will never see you as you are Your shallow soul blinds me

All I feel in this weary hour is weakness and dismay in solitude
thoughts revolve around your way

All I see is you slipping further away Lost in a void of grey...

I will never see you as you are
Your shallow soul blinds me

I see you
All this hate for you
I feel you
All this love for you

I will never see you as you are
Your shallow soul blinds me

I see you
All this hate for you
I feel you
All this love for you
