"Sail away"

Visit "Sail away" on MotoLyrics.com

All I see is my newfound friend
And all the things she grants me
Freedom is not among those things
And freedom is by no means free

Well, this is where it all begins
Begins to stretch and part
If we were to be changing things
I wouldn't know where to start

I just want to sail away
From it all
Freedom is impossible
This I know

I can't find it in no bedroom
Or wherever it is I run and hide
And I never did find it
By anyone's side

Well this is where it all begins
The night pulled tight around me
Now that I have found this big love
I'm sometimes dwarfed in its company
