Blue

Strange colour blue
Sixteen tons on the moon

Blue

Strange colour blue
Coming back to you

Pushing through

Pouring rain

Nearly there

Nearly there

Oh, blue

Blue

Strange colour blue
Sixteen tons on the moon
Hey little mister driver man

Keep your head up

We are nearly there

I am racing

Outside and below myself

Nearly forgot myself there

Nearly there, yeah

Oh, everybody's sleeping now

An industrial silence singing

And the rain will keep hammering down from overhead

Now there's a blue, blue, strange colour blue

Let me dream of me and you

Oh, how the rain keeps coming down

Pour, oh, running down the window

Like a vein on my arm

Oh, running down the window

Like a vein on my arm, yeah

This is how we do it

This is how we do it
This is how we do it
Nearly there
This is how we do it
This is how we do it
This is how we do it
Nearly there
Oh, blue

Strange colour, a colour blue
Yeah, a colour blue
Oh, blue blue blue yeah
Strange colour, a colour blue
Yeah, a colour blue
Oh, blue blue blue, yeah
Strange colour, a colour blue
Oh, a colour blue
Hey little mister driver man
Keep your head up
We are nearly there
Nearly there
