How come the stars shine so bright
Here in this night it will not end
There's a boy and a girl
Who know all the wrong words

And you and I need no more
It's so good to be alone with you
It's so good to be open eyed
They won't know us anymore when we
Once we step back in to
This old house

In this old house
Where every door is open
Well listen real close
This old house

In this old house
We know there's more to this than there
The nation of the two
In this old house

This old house is where we
Consider it gone and the same
Now there were days when we would thought
Those guiding stars would shine no more

Oh it's all right when we
We just don't talk it over
State of rest and the state in despair

It's so good to be alone with you
It's so good to be open eyed
And they won't know us any more
Once we step back into
Oh this old house

In this old house
Where every door is open
We'll take it real slow
In this old house

In this old house
We know there's more to this than there
Never leave
This old house

Oh in this old house
We know there's more to this than there
Never leave
This old house

Oh in this old house this old
We know there's more to this than there
We'll never leave
This old house
