Why do we never know
Questions come and answers go
Somewhere else besides our head
We wear the stripes until we're dead
And we only want to love
Spending time here and above
Hopelessly devoted of flesh and blood
Until we're done and done

Wake up now we've got to go
Somewhere higher's all I know
Leave behind the walking dead
Leave the mess don't make the bed
And roll right on like a wave
Rolling never hesitate
Build momentum and create
Something to sing, something to say

Oh let it go
Cut loose and roll
Rock steady soul
Get up stand up. Throw your hands up
And oh let it go
Cut loose and roll
Rock steady soul
Get up stand up until you're done and done

Why do we never know
Questions come and answers go
Somewhere else besides our head
We wear the stripes until we're dead
Let's roll right on like a wave
Rolling never hesitate
Build momentum and create
Something to sing, something to say

Oh let it go
Cut loose and roll
Rock steady soul
Get up stand up. Throw your hands up
And oh let it go

Cut loose and roll
Rock steady soul
Get up stand up until you're done and done
