I'm a man of few words baby,
I'd think by now you'd heard them all.
I'm a man of few words baby,
I'd think by now you'd heard them all.
Shut up!
It's gonna take a aspirin,
Take one big as my own head.
It's gonna take a aspirin,
Take one big as my own head.
Whoa!!!
Help me!
What I'm trying to tell you
Is how much I love you,
How much I love you in that dress.
And the way the light,
Bounces off your hair,
Warms me in ways I can't express.
No!
They put me in a line-up,
You said "oh yes, I'm sure it's him."
They put me in a line-up, momma
You said "oh yes, I'm sure it's him."
No!
Why me baby?
