When I close my eyes to this paradox place,
Ill fly away far away from here,
Ill get away and dream,
Dream of you,
When it's all said and done,
And the night has come,
Ill disappear,
Take flight on the wind of wishing you where here,
Fading light like a star whose life has been gone for years
And I'll fly,
Fly across the sky,
And I'll leave,
Leave it all behind,
If you'd be here,
Here with me tonight,
Ill be fine,
Ill be fine,
Ill be fine
Ill disappear,
Take flight on the wind of wishing you where here,
Fading light like a star whose life has been gone for
And I'll fly,
Fly across the sky,
And I'll leave,
Leave it all behind,
If you'd be here,
Here with me tonight,
Ill be fine,
Ill be fine,
Ill be fine
