Fair thee well to my father
Fair thee well to my mother
Fair thee well sisters, brothers
I beg they bury me an orphan
So when the pearly gates they open
They'll let me on through
And I'll be named one of God's children once again

The Devil's running through our valley
The Devil's running through our valley
He's swimming in our precious waters
He dances in our moonlight
He won't stop till he's done
Till our family name's been taken to the grave
And he's sleeping with his gun and one eye open

I've been searching for my father
I've been searching for my mother
I've been searching for my sisters
I've been searching for my brothers
But they've been lost before I was born
I told still I'm praying for their souls
So they can meet me in His castle in the sky
