Lately I'm alright,
and lately I'm not scared.
I figured out that what you do to me feels like I'm floating on air.
I don't need to know right now all I know is I believe in the very thing that got us here and now I can't leave

Say anything,
but say what you mean
'cause I'm caught in suspension.

Now I'm wanting this for sure and I'll beg for nothing more.
I'll plan all day and drive all night and love what's in store.
I can't seem to stop this now even if it's not so clear.
And I'll take what I can get,
If you want me here.

Say anything,
but say what you mean
when you whisper you want this.
You're eyes tell the same.
We are gaining speed i can barely breathe,
cause I'm caught in suspension,

It's enough for me to get excited
It's enough to feel well.

Say anything,
but say what you mean
when you whisper you want this.
You're eyes tell the same.

We are gaining speed I can barely breathe,
I'm caught in suspension, (suspension)
I'm caught in suspension.

Say anything,
but say what you mean
I'm caught in suspension.
I'm caught in suspension

We are gaining speed I can barely breathe,
I'm caught in suspension, (suspension)
I'm caught in suspension.

Say anything,
but say what you mean
I'm caught in suspension.
I'm caught in suspension
