Anytime you're feeling low
Pick up the telephone
You'd better call... you'd better call collect
Let it ring... I'll be home
Anytime you're feeling blue
You want to get on board that big old plane
You get on board that big white plane
I'll be there to meet you

I, I will watch over you
If you want me to
And I'll be beside you
Right with you... all of the way
I will watch over you

I had a friend... he worked so hard
One day he said "I feel so tired"
"I know there's work left to do"
"But there's another place I'm going to"
At the time... I didn't understand
Then six months later... then I knew
He would not be back this way
He left me a letter... inside it read... he said

I, I will watch over you
If you want me to
And I'll be beside you
Right with you... all of the way
I will watch over you

You need not walk this world alone
Just tell someone... how much you have to give
And that you really care
How much you need them there to watch over you

I was given love once long ago
But I lost it in my careless ways
If that same love came back to me
This is what I'd say... I'd say

I, I will watch over you

If you want me to
And I'll be beside you
Right with you... all of the way
I will watch over you
