I'm half a crazy man
Waiting for confirmation
Signs keep a-changing and
I need some more information

Some tricks of the light you never know
Make a flickering midnight light into a glow

It's a trick of the light
It's a trick of the light

Something that tells me how
Her bright blue eyes are smiling
She turns up her head now
Will she, won't she deny him

Some tricks of the light you never know
Make a flickering midnight light into a glow
And the spark that you saw so bright was just for show
Could it ever have turned out right?
You never know

It's a trick of the light
It's a trick of the light

She turns, she takes his hand
Breaking his concentration
She burns at his command
That makes some transfiguration

Some tricks of the light you never know
Make a flickering midnight light into a glow
And the spark that you saw so bright was just for show
Could it ever have turned out right?
You never know

It's a trick of the light
It's a trick of the light

Could it ever have turned out right now?
It's a trick of the light

That is something you never know
It's a trick of the light

Could it ever have turned out right now?
It's a trick of the light

That is something you never know
It's a trick of the light

Could it ever have turned out right now?
It's a trick of the light

That is something you never, something you never...
