Girl, youâ€™ve been so busy I ainâ€™t seen you around You got the world on your shoulders, let me help you put it down
Maybe come inside and leave it all behind

You got your boss, your friends, your family every second of the day
People push you, people pull you, a million different ways
Iâ€™m feeling it too, Iâ€™ll tell you what Iâ€™m gonna do

Now that I got you here all to myself
Baby, I ainâ€™t sharing you with no-one else
Youâ€™ve been everybody elseâ€™s all week long
But tonight youâ€™re mine, all mine

You go get the blinds, Iâ€™ll turn off the phone

Then Iâ€™ll pour a little wine, baby make yourself at home
All I wanna do is spend some time on you

Now that I got you here all to myself
Baby, I ainâ€™t sharing you with no-one else
Youâ€™ve been everybody elseâ€™s all week long
But tonight youâ€™re mine, all mine

It might sound a little selfish, I know
But can you blame me, Iâ€™ve been missing you so Whoa, whoa

Youâ€™ve been everybody elseâ€™s all week long
But tonight youâ€™re mine, all mine
Yeah, tonight youâ€™re mine, all mine, all mine
Yeah, yeah
