Sometimes
Love ain't enough
And there's times
Where just giving up is alright
No matter how much you want it to work
Someone's gonna get hurt

Sometimes
It ain't about who's wrong
And as bad as you wanna hold on
The right thing to do
Is to get out right now
Before it's too late.

Chorus:
Yeah, the hardest part of leavin'
Is pickin up the keys and
Findin the nerve to start that car
The first night is the longest
You're wakin up alone and
You find out how strong you really are
All the rest is the easy part.

V2:
Before long the phone's gonna ring
And you'll want to answer his call
But girl don't
Have the same conversation
Over and over
So let it be over.

CHORUS:
The hardest part of leavin'
Is pickin up the keys and
Findin the nerve to start that car
The first night is the longest
You're wakin up alone and
You find out how strong you really are
All the rest is the easy part.

V3:
There's an open road

There's a life ahead
But even though you can't see it yet
Ohh, just take a chance
... pick up your keys, and find
The nerve yeah to start your car
... the rest is the easy part.

Yeah the hardest part of leavin is Pickin up the the keys and
Findin the nerve to star that car
The first night is the longest
You're wakin up alone
And you find out how strong you really are
All the rest is the easy part
... rest is the easy part.
