You can go out
Have a drink or two
Get real good at shootin pool
Stay out as late as you want to
When you're single
You can take a trip to Vegas any day
Pick any coast and go catch some waves
Everybody says you've got it made
When you're single

'Til you're coming home
To an empty house
Chips on the sofa
Just thinking about
What you had, what it was
That made you let her slip right through your hands
When you're single
You'd trade it all to fall in love again

Its not easy
Knowing that you walked away from it all

I bet she's out with somebody just laughing
Taking every bit of life on in now
She's falling for him

While you're coming home
To an empty house
Chips on the sofa
Just thinking about
What you had, what it was
That made you let her slip right through your hands
When you're single
You'd trade it all to fall in love again

When you're single you'd trade it all to fall in love again
Yeah I'm single and I'd trade it all to have you back
again
Oooo yes I would
