I am defeated love
And you're the reason why
Somehow completed by
The violet in your eyes
All the birds
Singing songs about you
And I just can't wait to breathe
The air around you
The air around you
I am descending now
I've nowhere else to land
Somehow the ending is
To sink into your sand
These are the words
I would write about you
That I just can't wait to breathe
The air around you
The air around you
