Well you got negatives baby growing inside like a little red rock

I didn't mean to stare you down

Do you wanna know what it's like on the other side

Well you gotta let go if you wanna know who you really love

I know you think it's what you want

Another part of your anatomy

It's just a way to get it out

It's just a way to yell it

That beautiful girl is now your enemy

I'd call and say happy birthday

But you're never home

You're the lucky boy charm with my heart on your arm

Cos there's people that do and people that don't

If you don't get out much then don't keep it inside

You're looking for your negatives baby well they're inside of mine

You'd better rehearse yourself so you know what to say

So it doesn't matter if your heart gets in your mouth today

I know you think it's what you want

Another part of you another part of me

It's just a way to get it out

That beautiful girl is now your enemy
