Day by day as time passes by
Sitting here alone always thinking of you
I'm thinking what's on your mind
Tryn to find the answers that is foolin inside
Will I ever put it aside

Cho.
But I never thought it would come this far
I just can't say what my true feelings are
So afraid you might dis appear,
I'm so lucky that you are here... here

And now that I've known you
I hope my dreams will come true
And I'll be in love with you
I hope you feel the same way too... ohh ohhh ohhh

Repeat cho.
