I need to hear your voice.
To know you're there.
I need to feel your arms around me.
To make me whole again.
And you won't have to worry that there's no one you can trust.

I want to drown in everything you are.
I want to drown.
Let me fall so far.
I want to drown.
In everything you are.
Everything you are.
I wanna to drown

You left me kneeling, burning up inside overcome by complications every time i try
And all thats give theres take away.
Just let me take it back.

I want to drown in everything you are.
I want to drown.
Let me fall so far.
I want to drown.
In everything you are.
Everything you are.
yeah

I need to hear your voice.
To know you're there.

I need to break this silence.
To know that you still care.
When every nerve is screaming
God don't let this be unfair.

I want to drown in everything you are.
I want to drown.
Let me fall so far.
I want to drown.
In everything you are.
You promise me I promise you

it's not enough to see this through

I want to drown in everything you are.

I want to drown.

Let me fall so far.

I want to drown.

In everything you are.

Everything you are.

(Everything you are.)

Everything you are...
