We can get it high.
So close that we almost die.
It's easy, Roll your life on a gamble.
Burn both ends of the candle.
Something telling you what i want you to know.
All my fears dissappear.

Salvation.
Take a pill to forget it all.
Then you're small, but it all fades away.
Turns to shades of Gray.
You can't ask me to stay.
But i want you to go.

All my fears dissappear.
Take a long hard look.
Were the people that nobody took.
You will always, allways be my heaven.
They say life goes on.

Even though the thrill is gone.
You will always,
Always be my heaven.

All my fears dissappear!
Take a long hard look
were the people that nobody took
you will allways, allways be my heaven
They say live goes on even though the fear is gone
you will allways, allways be my heaven
My heaven
My heaven!
