Another Sunday match again
Another Merseyside clash again
It's the 36th this season
By my calculations
That's when I made the decision
To stay in the lower divisions
Travelling from town to town
Hopping round from ground to ground
For the character and determination
In the face of bankruptcy
For the passion and dedication
Despite the threat of the Vauxhall League
And the stands may be empty
And the bank account too
But there's something in my stomach
Says they'll always pull through
That's when I made the decision
To stay in the lower divisions
Travelling from town to town
Hopping round from ground to ground
