Are you happy here in Theme park USA?
And do you sometimes wish that your life was plug and play?
And are the words to this song concise enough to follow?
Is your smart food simple enough to swallow?

We're dumbing down, dumb de dumb dumb
Dumbing down, dumb de dumb dumb
Dumb de dumb dumb dumb, dumb de dumb dumb
dumb
Dumb de dumb dumb dumb, dumb de dumb dumb
dumb
Dumb de dumb dumb dumb, dumb de dumb dumb
dumb
Dumb de dumb dumb dumb

Are we only eating worms from a can just because we can?
And is Disneyland all we understand?
Will our history be written out in headlines?
Diana dolls, and miracles, and land mines?

We're dumbing down, dumb de dumb dumb
Dumbing down, dumb de dumb dumb

{C'mon up here, second floor, second floor, right here, right here
I get knocked down and don't get up again, yo, wamba silly assed bitch C'mon man, we can talk about this
Ah, c'mon, I'm a girl, and I can still kick your ass}

{If there's nothing after death than why are we living anyway?
What's the point of seventy years? absolutely pointless}

{It's me Trousers
That's it}
