

Chumbawamba "Martini People"

Anytime, anyplace, anywhere
There's a wonderful world you can share
But only if you're stinking rich enough
Martini people are happy people
They always smile because they're getting paid
To sing and dance and have parties in the South of France
Wouldn't you do the same, if you got the chance?
Uncork the speedboat from the bottle and be whisked away
From reality today, to packaged dreamland UK
From the TV screen to the Sunday magazine
Fancy cigarette packets, dead animal jackets
From the big flashy car which runs on British Petroleum
From BP's investments in Australia in Uranium
Dinner is served!
