There'll be new events in seoul '88
Throwing the molotov and the hundred meter loot Hurdling over barricades putting the brick Vaulting over riot cops in the peoples olympics
The people are angry and the boss is running scared
The olympics of the oppressed, and the boss is running scared
People are content with olympic prestige
It means the poor are evicted to house the rich Let big business move in and advertise
To gloss over the reality of korean daily life
But the people are angry and the boss is running
scared
The olympics of the oppressed and the boss is running
scared
