You working men of England, one moment now attend
While I unfold the treatment of the poor upon this land For nowadays the factory lords have brought the labor low
And daily are contriving plans to prove our overthrow

So arouse you sons of freedom, the world seems upside down
They scorn the poor man as a thief in country and in town

There's different parts in Ireland, it's true what I do state There's hundreds that are starving for they can't get food to eat
And if they go unto the rich to ask them for relief They bang their door all in their face as if they were a thief

So arouse you sons of freedom the world seems
upside down
They scorn the poor man as a thief in country and in

Alas how altered are the times, rich men despise the poor
And pay them off without remorse quite scornful at their door
And if a man is out of work, his Parish pay is small Enough to starve himself and wife, his children and all

So arouse you sons of freedom the world seems
upside down
They scorn the poor man as a thief in country and in

So to conclude and finish these few verses I have made
I hope to see before it's long men for their labor paid Then we'll rejoice with heart and voice and banish all our woes
Before we do old England must pay us what she owes

So arouse you sons of freedom the world seems
upside down
They scorn the poor man as a thief in country and in
