At take off, my heart starts to race
Looks like everything is falling into place
But for this kind of miracle cure
It takes a lover's scorn to settle up the score

Breathe in, breathe out, it brings me closer
It's okay, it's alright, it happens every night
I've been chasing dreams all my life
Now life is but a dream

The chances are I'll never be the same
And it's a feeling I don't ever want to tame
'Cause I could spend the rest of my days
Watching her move with elegance and grace

Breathe in, breathe out, it brings me closer
It's okay, it's alright, it happens every night
I've been chasing dreams all my life
And now life is but a dream

Breathe in, breathe out, it gets me closer
It's okay, it's alright, it happens every night
'Cause I've been chasing dreams all my life
And now life is but a dream

It's okay, it's alright, now life is but a dream
