"Jaws"

Visit "Jaws" on MotoLyrics.com

When the hungry jaws of lust bites down
On a wide eyed stupid boy
The yellow jagged teeth pierce through the skin
Puts a fever in the blood
I know I've only met you once or twice
But maybe you can help me out
'Cause I don't really want some good advice
Just some help to shed my doubts

So hold on
Hold out
Hold back and not let it slide

Don't want to put my name down
On the cast of another broken heart
It's just another fucked up thing

So hold on
Hold out
Hold back and not let it slide

It'll take a while before resistance isn't futile
'Cause those emerald eyes from the emerald isle
Makes me quiver, shake and smile

Hold on
Hold out
Hold back and not let it slide
