Waiting here, I'll prepare and try my best not to be scared
There's no need to insist 'cause I'm too dumb to even resist Anymore and anyhow, anywhere you go, I will go with you

My darling curse, it's you and me versus the world
If I don't lose my nerve then we'll get what we deserve

All this time I climb the walls, I've never gained an inch at all My broken heart won't restart whatever I read in my chart
So take your time and don't be too late 'Cause my last flare's already in the air

My darling curse, it's you and me versus the world
If I don't lose my nerve then we'll both get what we both deserve

Might be each other, could be each other
