Please could you tell me
Why the hell you are so sad?
Is it somethin' I've said, somethin' I haven't said
Or are you just bringin' out, you're dead?
But don't worry baby, I'll be right beside you

I won't push you away
I won't push you to stay
I only wish I knew
How to get you through the day, day

Please let me tell you, for whatever it is worth
Yeah, I found the sunken treasure
Buried beneath your perfect breasts
And like a lover should, I'm stickin' up for you
Even when I know, you're wrong

Baby, smile to the world
Although it never seems to smile back
Never smiles back
