"House of Mirrors"

Watch Melena spinning beauty dancing 'till she's gone
But the hero lives his life mistakes unknown
Can you see her in the mirror
Her reflection's getting gone
Wounded lovers watching lovers
Ultimatums lead to falls

Would you kill for this tonight?
Cuz the gun it holds your life
Was it something that he said
That separated in her chest
There are no rules even if you try to win the fight
So go and hide your heart tonight

Beautiful Melena covering tears with clever smiles
Cross your fingers mend your heart up for a while
Love* you'll break his house of mirrors
Love* is boarded in the walls
Drunken lovers watching lovers
Feeling nothing watch them fall

Would you kill for this tonight?
I would kill to save her life
But there was something that he said
That separated in her chest
There are no rules even if you try to win the fight
