Let me give you a place to go
A page of feeling, flame of hope
You know that I don't think much of love
But read my story, it will tell you all
Chorus
A Prince with no feeling
A tale of love and woe
A girl with strong healing
It happened long ago
You captured all my demons
I got lost you're spell
You took out me out of limbo
And rescued me from hell
I'm a survivor, a rebel with the scars
A fallen angel, a long forgotten star
Give me glory from above
Mine is your story, it will tell you all
Chorus
You who made me feel like this
Never thought you might exist
All I know is when we kiss
Chorus
