Nothing is never ending
I can tell by the look in your eyes
True feelings have turned to mere gestures
Words of love now all seem just lies

No use to keep on pretending
I know that we've run out of time
It's no longer love, now we have to let it go
Just hear me one time

I remember, when I met you
How bad can you fall in love
When I touched you, when I held you
I'd never let you go
But too much has changed
Now the magic's gone
Love it seems has let me down.

We've been cheated by love
It's clear can't you see
Cheated by love
Baby just let me say
I'll remember your sweet love forever
We've been stolen of time
I'm hurting inside
Cheated by love
I still wouldn't change a day
Even if my heart hurts forever

Was it all a sweet dream
We won't know until given some time
The memories could be never fading
They might force love to give us a new try.

I remember, how I met you
And how did we fall in love
When I'll touch you, I will hold you
I won't let you down
And nothing will change
This time we'll hold on
Love, it seems, can't let you go

We've been cheated by love
It's clear can't you see
Cheated by love
Baby just let me say
I'll remember your sweet love forever
We've been stolen of time
I'm hurting inside
Cheated by love
I still wouldn't change a day
Even if my heart hurts forever

My heart's still aching, I'll never let you go
I'm a victim of love and affection
I'd never hurt you
I'd never treat you wrong
Shades of the night
Hear me testify

We've been cheated by love
Cheated by love
Even if my heart hurts forever

Cheated by love

We've been cheated by love
Cheated by love
Baby just let me say
I'm hurting inside
Cheated by love
Even if my heart hurts forever

Cheated by love
Am I just being fooled by my thoughts
Cheated by love
Cheated by love
