

Magnitude 9 "Quiet Desperation"

Visit "Quiet Desperation" on MotoLyrics.com

Looks like it's over the beginning of the end, between you and me there's sadness in your heart trying to hold back the tears in your eyes

I'm empty inside; my soul's left to die without you I'm losing my mind and I don't know what I should do

Try to retrace where we went wrong it's not the same without you

This indecision is tearing us apart leading to this quiet desperation
Our lack of vision, we've carried from the start
leading to this quiet desperation

Now our lives are torn apart

[solo]

I'm empty inside; my soul's left to die without you
I'm losing my mind and I don't know what I should do

We said forever, can we comprehend, how it use to be and it's breaking us apart threatening to take all the dreams in our lives

This indecision is tearing us apart
leading to this quiet desperation
leading to this quiet desperation
