"To Find A Reason"

Visit "To Find A Reason" on MotoLyrics.com

Try to trace the steps, look to find a reason Hidden truths we missed, changes all that we believe in
The shadows won't reflect, the waters we're too deep in Taken one last breath, before we dive into the deep end

The changes we must face, are facing you and me Now I'm searching for the truth in our faith we must believe
Find the truth, the lies they speak
Try to find a reason
Find the truth, the lies they speak

Searching for a place
Trying to achieve Promises they make All they want us to believe
See the grin upon their face, an image that misleads
The masses will embrace, all the lies that they will speak

The changes we must face, are facing you and me
Now I'm searching for the truth in our faith we must
believe
Try to find a reason
Now I'm searching for the truth in our faith we must
believe
Try to find a reason

Search to find the truth, a faith that we believe in Change your point of view and try to find a reason

The changes we must face, are facing you and me Search to find the truth, in a faith we can believe in

Try to find a reason
Now I'm searching for the truth in our faith we must
believe
Try to find a reason

Now I'm searching for the truth in our faith we must
believe
Don't you know that it's our faith we must believe
Try to find a reason
Find the truth, the lies they speak
Try to find a reason
Find the truth, the lies they speak
Try to find a reason
