I didn't care how many sweets I ate,
I didn't care about sleeping late
Cute face and innocent smile
I was getting freedom using lies.

Today I know these things are gone,
But don't you think that we've changed, cause we're not.

Stay innocent, stay innocent, stay innocent,
Grow up never!

Laughing loud and making noise to impress,
Falling in love when just a kiss ment sex.
Friends were everything and life was hard,
Though beeing happy seemed an easy job.

Don't you think we have changed cause we're not,
Deep inside you're a child, you just have to rewind.

Stay innocent, stay innocent, stay innocent,
Grow up never!

People say that you're changing,
But you feel it's not over,
Behind the face of a sinner
You miss the days of foolish acting.

And when you look in the mirror,
Let your eyes give you guidance,
You'll discover a person
Who lost his mind, but found his passion.

Stay innocent, stay innocent, stay innocent,
Grow up never!
