I know how it feels to cry
But it's only lovers know the reason why
They stay together
And when your time has come
You'll soon discover look at what you've done
Could be forever

Your open arms say everything
You're always there
It seems I might be here all night
I'll light a candle bright
To show your way tonight
Midnight you won't be sleeping
I won't be leaving

Off with my foolish pride
Too much in trouble never could decide
Always a struggle
Now I know how it feels to cry
It's only lovers know the reason why
They stay together

Your open arms say everything
You're always there
It seems I might be here all night

I'll light a candle bright
To show your way tonight
Midnight you won't be sleeping
I won't be leaving

I'll light a candle bright
To show your way tonight
Midnight you won't be sleeping
I won't be leaving

It seems I might be here all night
I'll light a candle bright
