There's nothing wrong with me
There are people who can't see
There are people who can't feel
These people are not real.

Lost your emotions
Lost your humanity
Come sit down and sing with me

Music, my friends and some people who listen to my
Music, my friends and some people who like the things I'm doing,
My friends and some people who listen to my
Music, my friends and real people, come on everybody.

There's nothing wrong with me
There are people who can't see
There are people who can't feel
These people are not real.

Lost your emotions
Lost your humanity
Come sit down and sing with me

Music, my friends and some people who listen to my
Music, my friends and some people who like the things I'm doing,
My friends and some people who listen to my
Music, my friends and real people, come on everybody.

This is the sound I can't live without
This is the sound I can't live without
This is the sound I can't live without
I can't live without

Music, my friends and some people who listen to my
Music, my friends and some people who like the things I'm doing,
My friends and some people who listen to my

Music, my friends and real people, come on everybody.
