I'm standing in your doorway
Like I've done a thousand times
I keep waiting for an answer
That don't come
I can get thru anything
Live thru any storm life can bring
But when it comes to losing you
There's nothing I can do

But cry for you baby
Die everytime
That I hear your name
Don't know what to do
A man shouldn't cry
Like I cry for you
Ever since you said goodbye
Baby every single night
I cry for you

I keep staring at your window
Trying to see thru your walls
Cos the wall that we built
Ain't always made of stone
I'm standing out in the rain
Knowing I can't touch you again
It's the hardest thing to take
The thought of it makes me

Cry for you baby
Die everytime
That I hear your name
Don't know what to do
A man shouldn't cry
Like I cry for you
Ever since you said goodbye
Baby every single night
I cry for you

Blame it on pride
My fatal mistake
Cos I never stopped loving you

I never said a word
I just let you go
Now I'm paying for it all

Ever since you said goodbye
Baby every single night
I cry for you
Cry for you baby
Die everytime

That I hear your name
Don't know what to do
Like I cry for you
Cry for you baby
Die everytime
That I hear your name

Like I cry for you.cry for you
