Move like the wind, burn like the sun
Cool like the rain, fool everyone
Fly like a bird, steal like a fox
Jump like a clown, pull like the ox

Be like the storm, scream to the gods
Hide all your fears, oh, brother of dogs
Crimson the blood of soldier and lord
None to excuse, death the reward

Still they are quickly falling
Down on their knees they're crawling
Now there will be no morning
There'll be no new day dawning for me

There'll be no new day dawning for me

Move like the wind, burn like the sun
Cool like the rain, fool everyone
Fly like a bird, steal like a fox
Jump like a clown, pull like the ox

Ooh! Yeah!
