"The Long Ride"

It burns brighter than the stars at night
Just as faithful as the falling light
It's wilder than the roaring sea
That's what it means,
That's what it means to me.
And I don't know what I'd do
If you took your love away.
I'd be dying by the day,
If you took your love away
Stronger than the coldest wind
Like the night sky never seems to end
A remembered long-lost memory
That's what it means,
That's what it means to me.
And I don't know what I'd do
If you took your love away
I'd be dying by the day
If you go away
There's a fire in your heart
It gets into my soul
And I know what it means
To be losing control
There's a fire in your touch
And it never grows cold
Though we stand at the edge
Still we never, never,
Never lose hold
Next to Heaven's holy prize,
Warmer than the morning sunrise,
Everywhere and everything you see,
That's what it means,
That's what it means to me.
And I don't know what I'd do
If you took your love away
I'd be dying by the day
If you go away
Far horizon where the Eagles cry,
Across the desert, over mountain high
I know that's how it has to be,
That's what it means,
That's what it means to me.

And I don't know what I'd do
If you took your love away
I'd be dying by the day
If you go away
