No promises to keep
Won't lose an hours sleep
Talks fast but makes no sense
The mask of innocence
Turns on the golden light
Perception clear and bright
He don't need no crystal ball
Don't need no one at all
He's a reckless man
He won't crack as a matter of fact
He's a political man
He's got blood on his hands
He thinks he wrote the book
Just take a second look
He reads it every day
Then tells it anyway
He's a reckless man
He won't crack as a matter of fact
He's a political man
He's got blood on his hands
He's a reckless man
He won't crack as a matter of fact
He's a political man
He's got blood on his hands
He's a reckless man reckless man
He won't crack as a matter of fact
He's a political man
