"That Holy Touch"

Gotta get myself on my feet again
I'm on borrowed time & I don't know when Yeah there's someone now in the world tonight Gettin' kicked around
Everlastin' fight

CHORUS:

I'm just a stray on this broken down highway
In this great divide there's no truth & no lies
I'll learn that dance, take up natural healin'
Gonna take my chance, magic carpet and fly
Break these hands of vengeance
Need that holy touch, 'cause
I'm just a stray on this lonely highway

Justice won't be done, better stay alive
Maybe some regrets will help you to survive
When you look for love & the best you found
Makes the price too high
Couldn't make you proud
