"Soft Foot Shuffle"

What the body doesn't remember,
Is what the soul has got in store for you.
And when the soul finally surrenders,
You gonna know it made your body move (x6)

All is in accord.

You know that time don't define me.
I take a break and do the soft foot shuffle.(x3)

The body gave you everything.
Don't need no soulsearching motha's,
A portion of motion gimme.(x5)

It's hard to follow it sometimes.
Your body's following my mind.

(Some guys are never loving,
Some guys are never telling) (x10)
