Times I remember
Days from the year passing by
Late in December
Looking for signs up in the sky
Oh, come, come let me show you how
This could be lasting forever
Oh, come, come let me tell you now
What Im feeling for you
What I found to be true
Its a night for lovers
A time for romance
The future bringing us words of promise
A brand new start
If we take the chance
A happy, happy year for us all
This situation
When we look back on new years day
Our celebration
I wanna take you all the way
Oh, come, come let me show you how
This could be lasting forever
Oh, come, come let me tell you now
What Im feeling for you
What I found to be true
Its a night for lovers
A time for romance
The future bringing us words of promise
A brand new start
If we take the chance
A happy, happy year for us
Oh, come, come let me show you how
This could be lasting forever
Oh, come, come let me tell you now
What Im feeling for you
What I found to be true
Its a night for lovers
A time for romance
The future bringing us words of promise
A brand new start
If we take the chance
A happy, happy year for us
Its a night for lovers

A time for romance
The future bringing us words of promise
A brand new start
If we take the chance
