On my mind there's nothing else but going home sometime to where everybody I know work together somehow, it's appealing. This feeling!
I've got it all worked out there's a presence that I can't doubt. It's telling me what I shouldn't do or where I can't goâ€¦there are no choices just me & all the voices!
Now it's leading me upon this world where I don't know. Please don't listen to me. I'm a bad idea on this egoflow. I am so sorry that I couldn't be around no more. I wish I could do everything I aim for!
Maybe I'm not to sit here no more this room has lost what I came here for. It's all too fast, I have to concentrate hard to make it last suddenly I just couldn't do itâ€¦get down to itâ€¦there were no choices
just me and all the voices.
