Have you anytime for Jesus While life's fleeting moments roll? In this mortal life too busy, Lord, too busy When you can't think about your soul

Soon we gonna summon at the portal, my Lord To the mansion in the sky And you will then sign your depart- your departure And you will then take time to die

(You know) it's time for business And there's time for pleasure And there's time just to think about your sins

You have not take time to ask the Lord Why don't you invite him to come in?

Soon we gonna gather, one day at the river Just beyond the shinin' blue..Oooh And if you have no time for Jesus Well, he will have no time for you (repeat..then end)
