If your all I wanted, why cant I just say
But you cared enough to send me on my way
I'm standing on the edge and I cant go back
I cant bring myself to do it alone

If I'm all you wanted, why don't you just stay
But your scared enough to send me on my way
Its my life or something like it, and I want it back
I cant bring myself to do it , why do you care
I cant bring myself to do it alone

Sometimes your best isn't good enough
Sometimes your best isn't good enough(good enough)
Sometimes your best isn't good enough
Sometimes your best was it all

If your all I wanted, why cant I just say
But you cared enough to send me on my way
Its my life or something like it, and I want it back
I cant bring myself to do it , why do you care
I cant bring myself to do it , why do you care
I cant bring myself to do it alone
