Have you anytime for Jesus
While life's fleeting moments roll?
In this mortal life too busy, Lord, too busy
When you can't think about your soul

Soon we gonna summon at the portal, my Lord
To the mansion in the sky
And you will then sign your depart- your departure
And you will then take time to die

(You know) it's time for business
And there's time for pleasure
And there's time just to think about your sins

You have not take time to ask the Lord
Why don't you invite him to come in?

Soon we gonna gather, one day at the river
Just beyond the shinin' blue..Oooh
And if you have no time for Jesus
Well, he will have no time for you
(repeat..then end)
