feat. The Mafia

Now all I ever wanted was a mansion and a yacht
A black Mercedes Benz I could drive right off the line
A big booty bitch, a couple diamonds in my watch

I just need a few mill, that shit get me off the block

Got money on my mind, my pistol fully loaded
My tank is full of gas, so whoopy but I'm rolling
A chance to make a mill, pray to God I never blow it
You can bet I'm still real, pussy niggas still falling
Got Aston Martin visions and Panamera dreams
Me and 80 in the kitchen tryina whip up us a scheme
We on the road to riches, got a thing for pretty bitches
I pray the lick will hit me way before the feds gets us
The spirit of a soldier, my heart is like a lion
Got tears in my eyes while I'm squeezing on my iron
I'm scared to live broke, homie, I don't fear dying
Give me space, please, bitch, don't you see a nigga got it?

Now all I ever wanted was a mansion and a yacht
A black Mercedes Benz I could drive right off the line
A big booty bitch, a couple diamonds in my watch
I just need a few mill, that shit get me off the block

Now all I ever wanted was a mansion and a yacht
A black Mercedes Benz I could drive right off the line
A big booty bitch, a couple diamonds in my watch
I just need a few mill, that shit get me off the block

All I wanted is way bigger than the peer Joyce
He gonna die fronting, think H Bell in his coffin I'm in my office, mafia, my team got the rock and we on score
Junk shot T in the block, I can remember that night I threw heat at the cops
Main man on top, ' here claiming the spot
Like waning them, weighing them, 50 Cent, Dre-ing them

Mafia, don't play with them, no splitting the tray with them
We mixing and caking them, bitches, they feeling safe with them
Talk soft like mason them, we walk, we ain't chasing them
All I wanted, I'm waking them, we up, y'all hating them

Now all I ever wanted was a mansion and a yacht
A black Mercedes Benz I could drive right off the line
A big booty bitch, a couple diamonds in my watch
I just need a few mill, that shit get me off the block

Now all I ever wanted was a mansion and a yacht
A black Mercedes Benz I could drive right off the line
A big booty bitch, a couple diamonds in my watch
I just need a few mill, that shit get me off the block
